Volunteer Opportunities - There are many ways to serve at St. Mark's, and we'd like to know what you are interested in - please contact Traci to volunteer or to gather more details! A few opportunities that we'd like to highlight this month include the following:

- Offering Counters - does the sound of an adding machine give you joy?
- Usher - while not up front, being an usher is a vital role in worship!
- Photographer - is your hobby taking pictures?

Lenten Preachers Wanted! Have you ever wanted a chance to preach or share God's story in your life? We will be featuring guest preachers from within our congregation to deliver a brief homily during an assigned Wednesday mid-week Lent service. Our Lenten theme this year will be "Pay Attention". Each preacher will share a testimony how their attention has been drawn to God and how they resonate with the selected scripture. Each preacher will receive guidance and preparatory coaching from Pastor Jason. If you are interested please contact Pastor Jason by February 14.

"Watchfires" - a conversation with V.L. Cox. Join us Sunday, February 27, at 2 pm in the sanctuary for an engaging event. Moderated by Madeline Burkhardt, Adult Education Coordinator and Curator at the Rosa Parks Museum, we will have the opportunity to view pieces from the "Watchfires" exhibit and converse with the artist, V.L. Cox, about her work. "I chose the name 'Watchfires' for this body of work for a reason," Cox said. "Those who have paid the ultimate price to fight against the spread of evil, authoritarianism, and fascism, would be shocked at how the values they fought to protect are being purposefully eliminated. Those heroes and sentinels are gone. Now is the time for us to pick up the light that has fallen and take their place – we must be the 'Watchfires.' Now more than ever, we need the 'Watchfires' to burn again through the night to light up the darkness as a beacon of hope, strength, freedom, equality and civility, and to illuminate the path that once was traveled, so people can find their way home." For more information, visit our website: stmarkshsv.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Worship Assistant Training - Would you like to help serve on a Sunday morning? Are you already serving on Sunday mornings? With the many changes of late - COVID protocols, microphones, etc.- a refresher is good for everyone. Please join us next Sunday, February 13 at 12:30 pm, following worship, for some worship assistant training. This is for any who are or would like to be an assisting minister, communion assistant, lector, or usher.

Hospital Ministry -For February, we have the privilege to honor the Housekeeping Staff, a group of 190 people. Often overlooked, this hard-working group will receive a little valentine sweetness with some candy kisses, and valentine cookie bars. To sign up for donations or to help out on February 20, please call the church office or visit our Sign Up Genius link. The cookie recipe is available by contacting Traci, she will email you the link and/or recipe itself.

FOODLine, the emergency food ministry of Interfaith Mission Service, needs phone volunteers to connect callers with a local food pantry. They are located in the United Way building on Andrew Jackson Way. Volunteers usually work 2-4 mornings per month. For more information, contact libbypotter@gmail.com.
